Happy New Year from Camp Hollymont!

We hope you had a safe, fun celebration welcoming in 2014. We love watching the calendar switch over because it means we are one step closer to Hollymont 2014! Did you celebrate with Hollymont friends? Send a picture to allie@hollymont.com to be published on our social media sites. We love watching Hollymont girls continue the love and laughter outside of camp.

Now is a great time to think, “what is my camp resolution?” Maybe you try a new skill this year? How about finally learning how to water ski or whitewater raft? You may decide to step outside of your comfort zone and apply for a different session so you can make even more camp friends. Or perhaps you want to stick to what you know and strengthen skills you started last summer?

One of our goals in the office is to brainstorm new activities to keep camp fun and exciting. Amy and Allie started the new year by scouting for a new overnight camp trip location. Stay tuned!

Camp Hollymont for Girls

Social media has made it easier than ever for Hollymont girls to stay in touch. We love seeing you post “flashbacks” to past summers and hear about your excitement for another great summer at camp. Don’t forget to use #Hollymont2014 to share camp photos with the entire Hollymont family!

Posting on the internet does come with some responsibility, before you post ask yourself:

- 1) Am I valuing myself and others as image bearers of Christ through this picture? (Genesis 1:27)
- 2) Am I seeking praise for myself or praise for Jesus? (Matthew 6:33)
- 3) Am I being a faithful servant of Christ through my actions in this picture?
