

Job Description for: Returning Counselor

CAMP HOLLYMONT FOR GIRLS

Qualifications:

- Since counselors must live with the campers, supervise their activities, and meet or assist with individual camper personal needs, counselors must be female.
- Counselors must have completed their senior year in high school and have the work/camp experience along with the leadership skills to demonstrate the maturity and skill level necessary to complete their job.
- We prefer to hire counselors who are 18 years of age. To be accredited by the American Camp Association, we must meet camper/staff ratios. The ACA guidelines mandate that 80% of staff with camper supervisory responsibilities must be a minimum of 18 years of age. ACA guidelines also dictate that staff must be at least two years older than the minors with whom they are working.
- Counselors must exhibit an ability and willingness to meet staff qualifications listed in the staff guidelines.
- Since counselors are responsible for campers in an emergency, counselors must be physically able to accomplish the evacuation of campers from a building. Counselors should be able to carry a small child a short distance in an emergency.
- Counselors must be physically and emotionally able to cope with the stresses associated with the 24-hour care of minors.
- Since counselors are an important part of the individual cabin cluster's staff team, she must commit to working at least a 27-day camp session, along with attending staff orientation.

Lodging:

All campers and staff members live in separate housing, grouped by age.

Hummingbird House.....6-9 year olds

Cardinal House.....10-11 year olds

Blue Jay House.....12-13 year olds

Eagle House.....14-15 year olds

A cluster usually consists of four rooms. There are designated rooms for campers and rooms for staff. Depending on the age of the campers and our ratio requirements, there may be another counselor and/or a counselor-in-training in the room with you.

Responsible to:

- A Head Counselor who supervises your interaction with the campers within your cluster and on the hall.
- The Skills Coordinator and Skills Facilitator who administer/oversee the skills program, answers questions, make/approve skill purchases, and solve problems relating to the skills.
- Camp Directors who oversee all camp activities and staff.

Responsibilities:

A Hollymont counselor works with her co-counselor(s) to:

1. Wake her campers and make sure they get to breakfast and morning watch.
2. Help the girls clean their rooms and keep track of their personal items.
3. Help get the girls to skills on time.
4. Prepare and lead nightly cluster devotions.

A Hollymont counselor is expected to:

1. Participate in assigned hall monitoring rotations during rest hour and bedtime.
2. Actively participate in all evening activities and make sure campers are in attendance and participating in all evening activities.
3. Teach or assist with skills. (Hiring preference given to those who can teach skills.)
 - a. Teach or assist with four or five classes each skill day.
 - b. Must arrive at the skill site prior to campers.
 - c. Must be prepared with fun activities for a full 50 minute class.
 - d. Consult with the Skill Facilitator regarding lesson plans, skill material purchases, etc.
 - e. Keep a daily attendance roll and report immediately any unexcused absences to the Skill Facilitator or Camp Receptionist.

In all camp activities the Hollymont assistant counselor is responsible for modeling the enthusiasm and cooperative participation that we expect from campers and staff members.
