

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Counselor – First Year
Reports to:	Head Counselor, Skills Coordinator & Skills Facilitator, Camp Directors
Supervises:	Campers
Updated:	April 3, 2023; October 30, 2023

Role Summary: Counselors are key members of the Hollymont team who drive camp success, reflect the camp motto of “Living and Learning with Love and Laughter”, and model what it means to be a Christ-follower. Counselors provide direct supervision over campers to ensure their safety, enjoyment and participation in all camp activities and camp life. Counselors are responsible to a Head Counselor who supervises interactions with campers within their assigned camper groups. In their work assisting or teaching Skills Classes, they are responsible to the Skills Coordinator and Skills Facilitator who administer/oversee the skills program. Finally, counselors are responsible to the Camp Directors who oversee all camp activities and staff.

Counselor responsibilities include helping to create an environment where campers can thrive as they participate in new experiences, stretch their abilities, build relationships, and have fun! This position requires strong communication and interpersonal skills, the ability to assume responsibility for the care of minor children, and the ability to work well within a team. Creativity, time management, and problem-solving skills coupled with positivity and flexibility will be essential for success in this role.

- E. Ensures campers are in bed and settled for the night.
- F. Is attentive to ensuring a safe environment for campers at all times.

2. Supports Camp programming and activities.

Performance Criteria:

- A. Ensures houses, skill sites, and common areas are equipped and ready for camper arrival and usage.
- B. Participates in assigned hall monitoring rotations during rest hour and bedtime.
- C. Ensures campers are in attendance and participating in all evening activities.
- D. Actively participates and assists with conducting all evening and “all camp” programming activities.

3. Teaches or assists with Skills classes.

Performance Criteria:

- A. Teaches or assists with 4-5 classes each skill day.
- B. Prepares lesson plan for fun activities for a full 50-minute class.
- C. Arrives at skill site prior to campers and ensures supplies are ready for intended activity.
- D. Consults with the Skill Coordinator/Facilitator regarding lesson plans, skill material purchases, etc.
- E. Keeps a daily attendance roll and reports immediately any unexcused absences to the Skill Facilitator or Camp Office Receptionist.
- F. Ensures Skill supplies are stored properly, and skill area is tidy when Skills are done for the day.

4. Promotes and abides by Hollymont behavioral and performance standards.

Performance Criteria:

- A. Models the behavior of a Christ-follower showing evidence of the Fruits of the Spirit which are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.
- B. Presents self and Camp Hollymont in such a way as to create a favorable first and lasting impression upon campers and their parents showing hospitality, competence, and trustworthiness for the welfare of their child and their child's experience.
- C. Mentors campers in obtaining or deepening relationship with Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.
- D. Abides by the standards set forth in the Camp Hollymont for Girls Employee Manual and Statement of Faith.

Qualifications, Skills, Knowledge, Abilities

- Female – Counselors must live with campers, supervise their activities of daily living, and meet or assist with individual camper personal needs.
- Minimum requirement is to be a high school graduate. Preferred age is minimum of 18 years old. (To be accredited by the American Camp Association, we must meet camper /staff ratios. The ACA guidelines mandate that 80% of staff with camper supervisory responsibilities must be a minimum 18 years of age. ACA guidelines also dictate that staff must be at least two years older than the minors with whom they are working.)
- Must have work/camp experience along with leadership skills to demonstrate the maturity and skill level necessary to meet the requirements of the job.
- Must exhibit an ability and willingness to meet staff qualifications and workplace rules listed in the Employee Manual.
- Must possess the physical ability to carry a small child a short distance in an emergency. Counselors bear the responsibility for evacuating campers from the building in case of emergency.
- Must be physically and emotionally able to cope with the stresses associated with the 24-hour care of minors.
- Due to the vital role counselors play in the staffing structure for supervising campers and conducting camp operations, a minimum commitment of at least two full camp sessions (27 days) in addition to attending Counselor/staff Orientation week is required.
